

VISION: What do you see?

It is one year from now. You are looking back over the past twelve months with a sense of satisfaction and pride. It has been a fabulous year of growth and personal achievement. You sit down to write a letter to your closest friends, describing the year.

Your Name: _____

Your Email Address: _____

You begin: "This is has been a most extraordinary year for me ..."

---

---

---

---

What are the highlights?

---

---

---

---

What are the obstacles you had to overcome?

---

---

---

---

Who did you have to be, in order to get to that place?

---

---

---

---

There is an underlying theme for the whole year – a thread that weaves through it all – what is that thread?

---

---

---

---

Congratulations on taking the first step in your leadership journey. When you define your VISION, you can direct your effort and protect your future. If you would like to talk to someone about your VISION, complete the form then:

After you have saved it, email it as an attachment to kathy@vipleadership.com